

PRESS RELEASE

17 July 2015

Baar, Switzerland and Belgrade, Serbia

Amicus A.G. announces the Distributorship Agreement to represent Bristol-Myers Squibb (BMS) and commercialize several of its medicines in nine countries of the West Balkans and Baltics.

On June 23rd, 2015 Amicus A.G. and Bristol-Myers Squibb signed a new contract, to commercialize several BMS's medicines including innovative specialty-care and UPSA OTC products. The five year agreement is effective from October 1st, 2015 and covers the following countries: Croatia, Estonia, Kosovo, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Montenegro, Serbia and Slovenia.

"This agreement will allow Amicus to strengthen its position in both the pharmacy and hospital channels in the West Balkan countries and the three Baltic States," Petr Nemec, CEO and co-founder of Amicus, commented.

"We are very proud to represent a leading biopharma company such as Bristol-Myers Squibb and facilitate access to its medications including the well-established UPSA portfolio to patients in these countries." Nemec continued.

Based on this agreement, Amicus and its local affiliates will commercialize, promote and provide services related to selected products, including distribution, access, regulatory, medical affairs and pharmacovigilance.
